10 March 1959

MEMORANDUM FOR : Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT : Leave

1. In the absence of Col. Burke and your normal unavailability, I felt I should advise you that I expect to visit my parents for approximately 10 days commencing 16 March.

2. My father has been in ill health for the past year, and I have been repeatedly requested to visit him. If I can possibly cut short the visit I will. Before I leave I will do my best to insure that the Branch can answer any questions you might raise in my absence.
